

GLENN ATHEY

CV - RESUME

PROFILE

Where I came from explains a lot about what I do. I grew up in the North East of England in the 1970s and 80s when industrial restructuring in was in full swing. I remember friends at school whose parents had lost their jobs in traditional industries. I think this is why

I went on to study and work on economic regeneration in Yorkshire, Scotland and London before finally settling with my family in Cambridge in 2008.

Website
WWW.MYLOCALECONOMY.ORG

Email
GLENN@MYLOCALECONOMY.ORG

Social
UK.LINKEDIN.COM/IN/GLENNATHEY

Twitter
@GLENNATHEY

- 2013 — Managing Director
Cambridge, England
Trusted advisor and economist advising local communities
- 2011 — 2013 Interim Executive Director
GCCP LEP, Cambridge
Overseeing print and branding projects for international clients
- 2008 — 2011 Director of Research & Intelligence
East of England DEvelopment Agency, Cambridge
- 2006 — 2008 Head of Research
Centre for Cities, London
- 2004 — 2006 Head of Business Policy
London Development Agency, London
- 2001-2004 Senior labour market economist
Scottish Enterprise, Glasgow

EDUCATION

DOCTORATE

1995—1998
Ph.D. In urban and regional economic regeneration, University of Glasgow

MASTERS

1993—1998
MA European Political Economy, University of Hull

GRADUATE

1990—1993
BA Hons Geography & Economics, University of Hull

The types of clients I enjoy working with are those with a genuine drive to help shape prosperity and opportunity in their community.

SKILLS

- ▶ Advice, facilitation, chairing
- ▶ Writing and speaking
- ▶ Professional economist and analyst
- ▶ Economic development professional
- ▶ Creative strategies and delivery plans

HOBBIES

Computers. Love them when they work, hate them when the don't!

HOBBIES

Music. Playing, listening, attending gigs. Claim to fame: I once supported the Manic Street Preachers

GLENN ATHEY

RECENT PROJECTS

HOW I WORK AT MY LOCAL ECONOMY

Trusted Advisor: who offers high quality professional advice and solutions. We also listen to your needs, and your desired outcomes.

Curiosity: I enjoy the constant learning that this profession involves. I get a kick out of learning what makes local economies tick, and what capabilities and opportunities might provide turning points for prosperity

Creativity: All local economies are different, and finding strategy and delivery solutions is a creative endeavour.

WWW.MYLOCALECONOMY.ORG

MY WORK

THE LONDON STANSTED CAMBRIDGE CORRIDOR (LSCC) GROWTH COMMISSION

Client: LONDON STANSTED CAMBRIDGE CONSORTIUM
Date: JULY 2015 TO SEPTEMBER 2016
Media: WWW.LSCCGROWTHCOMMISSION.ORG.UK

Sir Harvey McGrath, Chair, LSCC Growth Commission: "Glenn's support for the work of the Growth Commission was critical to its successful conclusion. He was highly organised, timely, and in control of the process. But beyond that, his subject knowledge, analysis and ability to draw out contributions from Commissioners and other contributors was exemplary; it enabled us to see the bigger picture, draw on and synthesise a wide range of expert and stakeholder material and input; and pull all this together in a cogent, compelling final report which has been well received."

WEST OF ENGLAND ECONOMIC ASSESSMENT

Client: WEST OF ENGLAND LEP
Date: OCTOBER 2015

Comprehensive 100-page assessment of West of England LEP area economy consisting of Bristol, Bath & NE Somerset, North Somerset, and South Gloucestershire. Included accessible executive summary with infographics.

NATIONAL INNOVATION BODY FOR WALES

Client: WELSH GOVERNMENT
Date: JUNE - DECEMBER 2016

Part of expert panel to examine the need for, potential functions and role of a new National Innovation Body for Wales. The project examined the current policy and delivery landscape in Wales and internationally. Reporting to the Innovation Advisory Council for Wales, the final report set out a compelling case, rationale and priorities for this new body.

HERTFORDSHIRE SKILLS AND LABOUR MARKET REVIEW

Client: HERTFORDSHIRE LEP
Date: MARCH 2015 & 2016

In March, conducted a comprehensive assessment of labour market and skills trends in Hertfordshire, including in-depth assessment of whether Hertfordshire's labour market was tightening too far. Client subsequently commissioned update report one year on.

CHELTENHAM ECONOMIC STRATEGY

Client: CHELTENHAM BOROUGH COUNCIL
Date: JANUARY 2015

Comprehensive consultation and economic analysis of the Cheltenham economy and its challenges and opportunities. Reviewed real estate market and demand. Provided strategy and delivery options with practical ways forward to address land use issues and the cybersecurity opportunities from GCHQ